

SEVEN ME:
A PROGRAM OF SOCIAL AND PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT FOR PRESCHOOL CHILDREN

By M.A. Dozorova, N.V. Koshleva, and A.A. Kronik

Yaroslavl, Russia: Remder Publishers, 2005.

Language: Russian

Pages: 164

ISBN 5-94755-070-9

Seven Me, the name of genealogical curriculum for preschool children, means: “Me + Mom + Dad + Two Grandmas + Two Grandpas”. It includes several educational activities with kids (ages three to seven) in kindergarten and at home.

Seven Me is the unique experience of applying of genealogy, developing and testing of the original pedagogical techniques in the work with children, parents, and teachers. In 2001, the curriculum received best award in competition of intergenerational and family innovational projects in Russia.

CONTENTS

Conceptual basis of the Seven Me program

Genealogy lessons for adults

Project activity as a technology for a child’s immersion into the world of social relations

Family album page, Our Names, ages 3 to 5

Family album page, Our Favorite Toys, ages 3 to 5

Family album page, Where We Were Born, ages 5 to 6

Family album page, Our Favorite Fairy Tale Heroes, ages 6 to 7

Museum of family histories

Psychological support for the Seven Me program

Levels of program progression